10. Tourism

Now, would you like to visit the country yourself? Well, let's go!

As you will have seen, Brazil is a big, beautiful country in South America. It is easy to recognize on the world map as its shape makes you think of a heart.

Brazilians include people from all ethnic backgrounds. This is because of the mingling different people — the Europeans, Africans and Asians who arrived from across the sea, and the many Indian groups who had been living here for thousands of years.

Many tourists come to Brazil to see the wonderful countryside and its beautiful coastline. If you would like to travel as a tourist to Brazil you can click on the link below and be taken on a fantastic journey around the whole country, seeing the famous Amazon River, the beaches of Ipanema and Copacabana, the falls of Iguaçu, the city of Rio de Janeiro and much more. You will learn about Brazilians, the food they enjoy, their music and sports, festivals, folklore and art.
